A CELEBRATION IN HONOR OF JOSHUA LEDERBERG

The many years of collaborative computer science research with Professor Lederberg have been years of inspiration, achievement, and deep satisfaction for us all. On August 16 we will be getting together to honor our colleague and friend and to wish him well in his new work at Rockefeller University.

Though we will miss him deeply, it is a time to celebrate the scope of his ideas, his personal warmth and caring, and his tireless efforts on our behalf.

The festive occasion will take place on Wednesday August 16, between 5pm and 7pm, in the Gold Room at the Stanford Faculty Club. We hope you will be able to join us in this celebration.

Sincerely,
